The unit certificate so issued shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Unit Scheme, 1971.
- (6) In the event of the death of the first-named person before completion of the period of the Plan, the membership of both the persons shall stand terminated and the second-named person as at the time of the death of the first-named person will be recognised by the Trust as the person entitled to receive from the Trust—

- Provided that the Trust may, if so desired by the second-named person, pay him the cash equivalent of all the units to which he is entitled.
- (8) The insurance cover having been granted on the life of the first-named person, the amount of insurance referred to in paragraph 24 hereof shall be payable only in the event of the death of the first-named person.
- (9) (a) In the event of the death of the second-named person before the completion of the period of the Plan, the first-named person shall, subject to the provisions of clause (b) hereof, be recognised by the Trust as the only person entitled to the units held under the Plan and such first-named person shall continue to participate in the Plan.
- (b) The first-named person may, if he so desires, associate another person (not being a minor as on the date of the application for participation) to participate with him in the Plan in the place of the deceased second-named person and for this purpose, the first-named person and the proposed joint participant should make an application in the prescribed form. Thereupon, the Trust may, if the application is in order and on being satisfied about the death of the second-named person and against surrender of the Membership Certificate already issued, admit the proposed joint participant to the benefits of the Plan and issue a fresh membership certificate in the joint names of the first-named person and the proposed joint participant and thereupon the proposed joint participant shall be entitled to all the benefits of the Plan as though he had been originally named the second-named person.
- (c) In the event of the first-named person subsequently dying before the completion of the period of the Plan without associating another person in the place of the deceased second-named person, the provisions of paragraph 23 hereof will apply.
- (10) Notice of termination of participation in terms of paragraph 30 hereof may be given only by the first-named person, either by himself or jointly with the second-named person.
- (11) Request for payment of cash equivalent of units in terms of paragraph 22 or 31 may be made only by the first-named person either by himself or jointly with the second-named person and the payment by the Trust to the first-named person shall discharge the Trust completely in respect of such moneys.
- (12) The term 'member' wherever it occurs in this Plan shall, unless the context otherwise requires, mean in a case where the application has been made by two persons jointly, the person first-named in the application."
